

Protecting Rowley Fields for generations to come

Membership Application

Friends of Rowley Fields

Are you a Friend of Rowley Fields?

Membership is open to anyone interested in preserving and protecting the land known as Rowley Fields, Stratford upon Avon. Members will learn more about the area and will have opportunity to help improve and enhance the environment, both for wildlife, recreational and leisure use.

The area is owned and managed by Stratford Town Trust and members are encouraged to explore ways to increase the recreational and leisure benefit, thereby enhancing the quality of life of the Trusts beneficiaries.

New members will be welcome to join at any time and participate in a range of activities including general maintenance, litter picks, planting native flowers and bespoke projects. In addition, recreational activities for members include bird watching, bat and moth nights and nature walks. Full details of proposed activities will be posted on the Friends of Rowley Fields Website and displayed on the Maidenhead Road notice board.

Annual membership costs £10.00 per adult, children aged less than 18 years of age may join for free. Membership fees will be used to support Rowley Fields including, FORF administration and equipment costs, events, activities and projects.
